

Terms & Conditions of Danzon Membership

The membership agreement is made between the Proprietors (Danzon) and 'the Member'. The Member understands and agrees to be bound by the Rules and Regulations of Danzon as they exist, and any amendments to them which are publicised to the Members from time to time (the Rules).

1. Membership entitles free admission only to the regular, scheduled salsa and zumba classes as advertised under the Danzon name. The timetable and venues may change from time to time without notice.
2. Membership entitles 10% discount on Danzon workshops with Danzon teachers (not guest teachers)
3. The membership scheme is a discount scheme and does not entitle members to behave differently from other students, for example, attending classes above the appropriate level or behaving in an improper manner.
4. Please note that membership does not guarantee a place in the class in the unlikely situation where there are limited numbers.
5. No refunds for the payment or part payment of Membership will be made.
6. Danzon Management reserves the right of issuing membership and may from time to time refuse to issue or renew membership at its own discretion.
7. Persons wishing to become Members must complete and sign the Application Form.
8. Membership cards must be produced for inspection when entering the class/ club on each and every visit and given up on expiry of the membership.
9. The Membership Agreement shall continue from the date on which the Member is enrolled until expiry of membership, in accordance with the provisions of the Rules.
10. Membership does not confer on a Member any ownership interest in Danzon or its property.
11. In the event of losing your membership card, you can receive a replacement card at an administrative cost of €10.
12. The Member hereby agrees to be bound by the Terms and Conditions of Membership and 'the Rules' of Danzon.
